From Saturday April 10. to Tuesday April 13. 1714

St. James's, April 10.

THIS Day was preſented to Her Majeſty the humble Addreſs of the Epiſcopal Clergy of the Dioceſe of Aberdeen, by the Reverend Dr. James Garden, and Dr. George Garden, attended by ſeveral other Clergymen, and introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Mar, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Barons and Heretors of the Shire of Argyle, of the Name of Campbell, and others, was likewiſe preſented to Her Majeſty by Duncan Campbell, of Lochinell, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Mar, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Both which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly, and was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on the ſaid Duncan Campbell.

Vienna, April 4. N. S. The Emperor hath appointed Prince Eugene, Count Goes, and Count Seilem, to be his Plenipotentiaries at the Congreſs at Baden; and it is ſaid the two latter will ſet out for that Place in a few Days. The Treaty of Peace between the Emperor and France has been made publick, and ſeveral Copies of it are ſent to the Miniſters of the Princes of the Empire. Cardinal Schotenbach is gone from hence to Rome, and General Palfi to Hungary, from whence we are informed, that Count Lowenbourg died on the 16th paſt at his Government of Great Waradin. Letters from Turky bring an Account, that the Ambaſſador of Poland had been in Conference with the Grand Vizir, who deſired to know of him what Orders he had received in relation to the Ceſſion of Ukrain; declaring, that in caſe that Province was not reſign'd to the Ottoman Port, the Han of Tartary ſhould enter into it, and lay waſte the whole Country. The Ambaſſador return'd Anſwer, That he had no Inſtructions to yield up any Place, but only to demand that the Treaty of Carlowitz ſhould be obſerved; That he would ſend an Expreſs to inform King Auguſtus and the Republick of the Pretenſions of the Port, and that in the mean time the Poles were prepar'd to defend themſelves againſt any Invaſion. The ſame Advices add, that the Bachas in Aſia continued their Rebellion with great Animoſity, and, by the Support of the Arabians and Perſians, they made a vigorous Reſiſtance to the Army the Grand Signior had ſent to reduce them to their Obedience.

Berlin, April 7. N. S. Yeſterday Monſieur d'Ahlefeld, the Daniſh Envoy, had a private Audience of Leave of his Majeſty, and in a few Days he intends to ſet out for Copenhagen. This Day the Court went into Mourning for the Duke of Wolfenbuttel. The Government of the Abbey of Quedlimbourg, which was lately conferr'd upon Monſieur Poſadoſsky, has been ſince given to Monſieur Hamrath, Preſident of the Regency of Halberſtadt, and Monſieur Poſadoſsky is to be Director of the Chamber of Finances of Magdebourg. The Counts Flemming and Wakerbart are expected very ſoon from Dreſden, and after they have tranſacted ſome Affairs at this Court they are to proceed to the Congreſs at Brunſwick. Letters from Petersbourg bring an account, that the Muſcovites have lately defeated a Body of Eight thouſand Swedes in Finland, in which Action the latter are ſaid to have loſt Five thouſand Men.

Hamburgh, April 13. N. S. His Pruſſian Majeſty hath writ a ſecond Letter to the King of Denmark, deſiring him to forbear the Demolition of Tonningen in the Minority of the Prince, to whom it appertains. A Memorial in the Name of the young Duke of Holſtein, hath likewiſe been preſented to the Aſſembly of Brunſwick, imploring the Aſſiſtance of the Miniſters there upon the ſame Subject, and they have accordingly agreed to uſe their Interceſſions with his Daniſh Majeſty, not to proceed in ruining the Fortifications of that Place. Notwithſtanding this, Orders are given to blow up the Arſenals, the Store-houſes, and the Barracks; and the Demolition of the Works is continued with great diligence. The Queen Dowager of Denmark is to buried on the 25th Inſtant. The King intends to aſſiſt in Perſon at her Funeral, and afterwards he will fix on a Day for his departure to Holſtein. Two Muſcovite Men of War of Seventy Guns each, are arriv'd at Copenhagen, and Eight more are expected very ſoon, to reinforce the Daniſh Fleet. Monſieur Hagen, who was ſent by the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein to Stockholm, is returned to Stralſund, having receiv'd a ſevere Reprimand from the Senate, in relation to his Maſter's concerning himſelf in the Affairs of Sweden, particularly in the Sequeſtration of Stetin. Major General Eckebladt is likewiſe arrived at the ſame Place, and has brought an Order to General Ducker to go immediately to Stockholm, but it is thought he will hardly comply with it, ſince he has received contrary directions under the King of Sweden's own Hand. It is reported, that the Czar has lately entertained ſome Suſpicions of the Court of Poland, and has made great Complaints againſt King Auguſtus for Ratifying the Treaty of Stetin, for accepting the Mediation of France, and conſenting to the Reſtitution of Livonia, even before a Peace is made in the North. It is ſaid, that Prince and the King of Denmark are ſo much diſſatisfied at the Behaviour of Count Flemming, that they will Proteſt againſt his admiſſion to the Congreſs of Brunſwick, and call their own Miniſters from thence, in caſe King Auguſtus, his Maſter, reſolves to employ him in Quality of his Plenipotentiary. We are aſſur'd, that the Czar will give Leave to the Swediſh Officers, whom he has taken Priſoners, to return home, provided they will oblige themſelves by Oath, not to ſerve againſt him or his Allies, during the Courſe of the preſent War. They write from Stockholm, that an account was brought there of the Defeat of the Swediſh Troops in Finland, which had occaſioned a great Conſternation among the People, and Orders were given to raiſe ſome new Forces for the Defence of that City. Notwithſtanding the King's Command, the States of the Kingdom had refus'd to ſeparate, and were extreamly preſſing with the Princeſs-Regent, to conclude a Treaty of Peace upon the beſt Terms ſhe could procure.

Hague, April 17. N. S. The Miniſter of Denmark hath lately preſented a Memorial to the States General, in relation to the Troops of his Nation in the Province of Overyſſel. On the 15th Baron Heems, the
